

The Real Secret Lives of The Veronicas!

Trend-setting Australian rock duo The Veronicas gave Popstar! VIP-only access inside their secret lives on the road during the New York City stop of their nationwide tour with The Click Five and Ryan Cabrera!

Jess and Lisa Origliasso, better known as The Veronicas, zig-zagged across America in a tour bus with their photos all over it. "We were at the airport and they were like, 'Just look out for a big blue bus.' For some reason, at that time, there were a lot of blue buses, but then we saw ours and just started laughing. We still do when we see it pull up!" the twin sisters admit. But the best part about touring for them is stepping out onto the stage. "It's the coolest! We have this intro music and the lights come on and we'll hear screams! It's awesome. It's the best feeling!"

The twins share more than their cool sense of style. "We are identical twins, so we were one egg and we split into two. At one point, we were one person! We're just so aware of each other and have that ability to know what each other is thinking and feeling!"

Before every show, the ever-grateful Veronicas write up a list of who they want to thank when they hit the stage!

"We got in trouble because we wanted our suitcases up in the bus, but they take up a lot of space! You don't know how many times we put on outfits and take them off because we can't decide!" the girls giggle.

Jess and Lisa love checking out every issue of Popstar! to see their pals Ricky Ullman, Evan Peters, Ryan Cabrera and David Desrosiers!

After soundcheck, the sisters chill in their dressing rooms until show time. "We'll figure out our set lists, warm up and then just hang out, running around being idiots!" they laugh. "We drink a lot of Red Bull, which probably doesn't really help!"

The girls gear up backstage for their big show with their guitarist Josh. They chant, "Veronicas, Veronicas, yeah!" every night before they rock the crowds. "It's our little thing. Then we have a little bonding session, a little pep talk, hit each other on the arms. Just get hyped up!"

With their first single "4Ever" already a hit and their Warner Sire album The Secret Life of the Veronicas available digitally since last year, Jess and Lisa leave their (lipstick) marks everywhere they go!

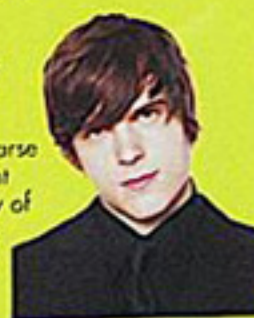

The Click Five's Ben Romans gets Veronicized! "We share dressing rooms with them sometimes. They're awesome guys!" Jess and Lisa say of their tourmates. They often hang out with Ryan after shows and have sing-alongs! "We have stupid songs that we all sing along to!"

THE VERONICAS DISH ABOUT THEIR TOURMATES!

RYAN CABRERA "Ryan wouldn't mind cutting his hair. Not really short, but he wouldn't mind a haircut right now. He's said it's hard to cut his hair on the road, that's why it gets so long! Also, he's good at the accordion!"

THE CLUCK FIVE "They really like to get their soundchecks nice and long! They rehearse in normal clothes. They have a different color shirt with their suits for every day of the week. Pink is Tuesday! And apparently Eric still plays with G.I. Joes, but we can't verify that fact!"
